Jared LeBrun is an associate at Yetter Coleman in the commercial litigation practice group.

He joins Yetter Coleman from a two-year clerkship with Hon. Robert L. Pitman at the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas. During his clerkship, he managed an extensive civil docket, including several high-profile constitutional challenges. Jared's legal experience also includes working as an SEO Law Fellow and Summer Associate at Covington & Burling LLP and interning at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York. He was also a clinic member of the International Refugee Assistance Project, where he prepared humanitarian parole applications and drafted asylum briefs.

Jared earned his J.D. from Yale Law School, where he served as an Articles Editor for the Yale Law & Policy Review and was a Civil Procedure Teaching Assistant. Before law school, he graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a triple major in Economics, History, and Plan II Honors.
